

500 examined at medical camp

OUR CORRESPONDENT

SAMRALA, NOVEMBER 8

In memory of the late Bir Balinder Singh, a former sarpanch and a member of the District Planning Board and a renowned social worker of Samrala, a special medical camp was organised by his son, Excise Inspector Bhoopjeet Singh Ropalon, in association with the gram panchayat and Naujan Sabha of Ropalon village, near here, today.

The camp was inaugurated by the SSP of Gurdaspur, Mr Paramraj Singh Umranangal. Heart specialists G.S Wander, G.S. Brar along with a team of Patients get themselves registered at a free medical camp held at Ropalon village, near Samrala, on Wednesday.

specialist doctors of Dayanand Medical College, examined more than 500 patients for heart ailments, cancer, sugar and other diseases.

Krishna Breast Cancer Care Charitable Trust, Lud-hiana, distributed free medicines to needy patients. Free langar was also organised.